MEDIA ALERT

CORCORAN ANNOUNCES INAUGURAL COMMUNITY DAY AND ART FAIR

Applications for Juried Community Art Fair Being Accepted now through September 14

WASHINGTON, D.C. —The Corcoran is dedicated to art, and we want you to be, too! Come gather, create, and be inspired at this day-long celebration of art and creativity.

Try your hand at printmaking and bookbinding during art-making workshops, make a hand-crafted, ceramic bowl to be donated to D.C. nonprofit SOME (So Others Might Eat), participate in hands-on pottery wheel and papermaking demonstrations, and don't miss your chance to meet artist Charlotte Dumas for an exclusive 2 p.m. tour of her exhibition on view now, Charlotte Dumas: Anima.

Shop at our Community Art Fair throughout the day, featuring fine arts and crafts made by D.C.-area artists. Don't miss performance art by Corcoran College of Art + Design students and films by CCAD students and alumni, as well as live outdoor music throughout the day. Todd Gray's Muse at the Corcoran will feature a special menu.
